1. Reaffirms the role of the Committee for Programme and Coordination as the main subsidiary organ of the General Assembly and the Economic and Social Council for planning, programming and coordination;

2. Re-emphasizes the role of the plenary and the Main Committees of the General Assembly in reviewing and taking action on the appropriate recommendations of the Committee for Programme and Coordination relevant to their work, in accordance with regulation 4.10 of the Regulations and Rules Governing Programme Planning, the Programme Aspects of the Budget, the Monitoring of Implementation and the Methods of Evaluation;[1]

3. Stresses that setting the priorities of the United Nations is the prerogative of the Member States, as reflected in legislative mandates;

4. Also stresses the need for Member States to participate fully in the budget preparation process, from its early stages and throughout the process;

5. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations of the Committee for Programme and Coordination on the programme performance of the United Nations for the biennium 2016–2017,[4] on evaluation,[5] on the annual overview report of the United Nations System Chief Executives Board for Coordination for 2017,[6] on the United Nations system support for the New Partnership for Africa's Development[7] and on the report of the Joint Inspection Unit,[8] contained in its report on the work of its fifty-eighth session, and requests the Secretary-General to ensure the timely implementation of the above-mentioned recommendations.
